

PRE-PAGEANT WORKSHOP

All Divisions

Are you a beginner in pageants?

No problem!

Want to fine-tune your walk and turns?

No problem!

Want to get a fun jump start on pageant weekend?

We do too!

We invite all contestants in each division to attend our Pre-Pageant Workshop! This fun class will cover all the basics that you need to know to look like a pro when you walk on stage! We will cover walking, model stance, personal introductions, and different styles of turns. There will also be industry professionals such as interview coaches, makeup artist, and fitness consultants there to assist you not only for the weekend, but for your future pageantry endeavors. While we will do our best to assist each contestant in general pageant rehearsals, attending the Pre-Pageant Workshop assures that each contestant will receive one-on-one coaching, giving them the boost of confidence they need to really Shine!

The Pre-Pageant Workshop is also a great chance to get a head start on pageant weekend by completing your pageant check-in early, which will give you extra time on Saturday morning! In addition, this is a wonderful opportunity to mix and mingle with the other contestants and the pageant staff, allowing you to get more comfortable with the people you will be spending your weekend with! Just remember, the more time you can spend with the other contestants and staff makes voting for Miss Congeniality and the Directors Spirit Award even easier!

Optional Pageant check-in will begin at approximately 6:00 p.m. on Friday, January 8, 2010. The Workshop is tentatively scheduled for 7:00-8:00 p.m. for Princess Contestants and from 8:00-9:00 for Jr. Teen and Teen Contestants. The official schedule will be released closer to the pageant. Princess Contestants are allowed to have one parent or guardian to attend the Workshop if needed, however if your child is capable of staying without you we have found that they are typically less distracted.

The cost of the workshop is only $15 per contestant. If you have more than one child in the pageant, or have siblings not entered in the pageant that would like to attend the workshop, the cost is $15 for your first child and $10 for their siblings.

To register for the Pre-Pageant Workshop just fill out the form below and submit it with payment to the pageant office by December 16, 2009. You may also pay online using PayPal if you like. We hope to see you there!
